

Scott Marshall – Project and Technical Analysis Manager

Scott Marshall has over thirty-five years of experience in the oil and gas industry as a technical analyst in various facets of the industry including geology, geophysics, reservoir and production engineering, regulatory compliance, information technology, land management and finance. During his career he has worked on exploration and development projects, workover and technology exchange projects, daily operations, IPO's, budgets, bond rating reviews, SEC and Insurance compliance, mergers, acquisitions and divestitures. He has both onshore and offshore experience in all regions of the United States along with international experience in Russia, Malaysia, UK, Norway, Ireland and the Netherlands. Former Employers and clients include Phillips Petroleum, BP, MD Seis (Lukoil), Tenneco, Range Resources, Ryder Scott, Noble Royalties, Endeavour International, Breitburn Energy and Tall City Exploration. Scott Marshall studied geology and engineering at the University of Houston and Stephen F Austin.